HealthcareBank, a division of Bell Bank has announced that Vanguard is broadening access to the lower-cost Admiral™ share of its Vanguard Total Stock Index Fund and eliminating the investor share class. May Investment Return Notifications will include the new share class. SHARE CLASS CONVERSION HealthcareBank will immediately transfer the Vanguard Total Stock Index Investor share class to the less expensive Admiral share class. Effective by end of day Monday, April 29th, 2019, the mutual fund share class listed under "New Investment Option" will be added to the HSA investment options and the share class listed under "Current Investment Option" will no longer be available. All balances and investment elections will automatically be transferred to the new share class. To accommodate this share class conversion, a short fund level blackout period will be required from 4 p.m. ET on Monday, April 29th, until after the transfer is settled on Wednesday, May 1st.
